Roku Lending Agreement – Approved 12/21/2021

Turn your TV into a smart TV with the Library’s Roku. Use it to stream hundreds of selected movies which are pre-loaded onto the device.

Use of a Roku at home requires a television with an HDMI Port and Broadband Internet Access with a strong Wi-Fi signal. You will also need to know your PASSWORD for your Wi-Fi network to setup the Roku. The Roku requires electrical power from a nearby outlet using the AC Adapter provided. Detailed Setup and Use Instructions will be provided at checkout.

The following conditions for Lending must be read, initialed and dated by the borrower.

The borrower must be 18, have a valid photo ID, a full access Ocean State library card, and have a least a 3 month borrowing history. _____

The borrower’s name on the library card must match the name on the photo ID. _____

The borrower must complete the Library’s Roku Lending Agreement each time a Roku is borrowed. _____

A Roku and its peripheral components are borrowed for 3 weeks and is not renewable. _____

A Roku may not be placed on hold; however, a Roku may be held for up to 2 hours for a borrower who calls in advance. _____

A Roku may only be checked out on the library card of the borrower present at the time of check out. _____

The Roku and its peripheral components are limited to one per household at one time. _____

The Roku’s apps and settings, including all preloaded movies, may not be altered and nothing can be added or deleted from the device. _____. Please refer to the Roku Setup and Use Instruction Sheet for additional “how to” information.

Late fees accrue at $5.00 per day. _____

The borrower is responsible for the full replacement cost of the Roku device and all of its peripheral components as detailed in this Roku Lending Agreement. _____

The borrower must return the Roku directly to the circulation desk of the Middletown Public Library. DO NOT USE THE BOOKDROP. Replacement charges may be assessed to the borrower should a Roku and its peripheral components be placed in the book drop as there is a strong potential that the device will sustain damage. _____
